PARENTING IN A DIGITAL WORLD
CYBER SAFETY, THREATS, & SOLUTIONS

Parenting in a Digital World is a 2-hour cyber safety seminar that will prepare parents to effectively supervise their child on social media sites and protect them from online threats.

Clay will tell parents what they need to know about the apps their children want, or maybe already have:

Musical.ly • Live.ly • Instagram • Snapchat
Periscope • Omegle • Ask.fm • Kik

Participants will receive a free Internet Safety Contract and the Cyber Safety Checklist. This class is for parents only. Children are not permitted.

Clay Cranford’s book, Parenting in a Digital World, will be available for sale at the event. $20.00 (cash or credit card).

Marshall Academy of the Arts
5870 E Wardlow Rd,
Long Beach, CA 90808

Tuesday, April 4, 2017
6:30 PM to 8:30 PM

Free to attend

“The best parent night we have had in my 29 years as an educator.”

Michelle Wrenn Benham,
Middle School Principal

INSTRUCTOR: CLAY CRANFORD

Clay Cranford is a thirteen-year law enforcement professional and is a Sergeant for the Orange County Sheriff’s Department. He has served as a member of the School Mobile Assessment Resource Team (SMART) and Crisis Negotiation Team in Orange County. As a juvenile investigator, he has investigated threats, weapon possession, and violent crimes in K-12 schools throughout Orange County, California. Clay is a nationally recognized expert on Social Media and author of, “Parenting in a Digital World.”

Clay has more than 20 years of teaching experience and regularly speaks across the United States at school safety and anti-human trafficking conferences. In 2015, Clay was awarded the National Anti-Bullying Prevention Award. Clay is married and a parent to two teenaged boys who love technology.